SPORTS

Dedicated to Miss Eunice Reed

who successfully guided the Senior Class of 1942 through the game of life during our four years of high school. She has shared our joys and our troubles. For her efforts in our behalf we are truly grateful.

On the other side of these doors we have spent the happiest and best years of our lives. It is now with fond recollections in our minds that we say goodbye.

Umpires of the Game

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

High school graduates of today are greeted by a world in transition in which the only certainty seems to be the certainty of change. In this perplexing situation, there is all the more need for careful preparation, and high ideals. Worthwhile contributions to our social order will be made only by those citizens who are qualified to the highest degree.

—JOHN L. ESTRICH.

Principal

"Be prepared" is the key phrase today for all people. Dictators are prepared to sacrifice your and my liberty to satisfy their own personal and national greed. We must be BETTER prepared (1) to utterly destroy, if necessary, such an anti-Christian philosophy; (2) to preserve the ideal of individual worth. This is one of the primary objectives of secondary education today.

—CLAYTON H. ELLIOTT.

Board of Education

John L. Estrich, Superintendent; Corneal Bratton, Secretary; Edward C. Kolb, President; Jerald Essenberg, Treasurer.

These are the executives who control our "game" at A. H. S. behind the lines. They solve problems and give advice. Our school could not exist without their services.

Senior Class Song

Hail to the Seniors, class of '42,
We work and root, root, root for Angola High every day-
day-day-day!
As through its doors we pass, Hail to our class!
We are a jolly group that's wishing good for every lad and lass.

Heave aho there, Seniors,
Everybody be happy and gay.
Heave a-ho there, Seniors,
We're gonna work and root the Angola way, every day.
Yes, sir, we play. Yes, sir, we work!

Seniors never say die, on to the sky.
We'll never change our course so, Seniors, we fly high-y-y!
Way up ahead, Seniors, Seniors a-weigh,
Ambitious Hustlers Succeed, Hustlers are we, Hustlers are we Seniors.

MOTTO—AMBITIOUS HUSTLERS SUCCEED

CHOICES

And now what? No one can tell us. It is for us to decide.

We, the class of '42, are completing twelve years of preparation for life, learning the fundamentals for living successfully with others and for meeting the problems that will confront us. As yet we have had to make very few major decisions. We have been guided and guarded by our parents, teachers, and friends. We have had very few real worries or cares. Now we are about to leave this period of training and go into society to conduct our own lives as we think best.

George Moore, an English author, once said, "The difficulty in life is the choice." A day never passes without one's making a choice of some kind, and these choices determine our lives. Success is to be had by those who can travel on the journey through life making choices wisely with conscientiousness, integrity, intelligence, initiative, and judgment.

We must choose a field of occupation so we can earn a living; we must make decisions concerning our social life and activities; and we must make another very important choice, that of our friends. "A man is known by the company he keeps," states an old proverb.

Success is our goal; choice, our problem. It is to be done, and we can do it.

—DOLORES NELSON.

PLAYING THE GAME

Today we, the class of nineteen forty-two, are entering the greatest game ever played, the game of life. We are not entering this game suddenly. We have been playing it for years, but heretofore, we have been sheltered and protected from the hardships. Soon we shall be on our own. For the past twelve years we have been learning the rules. We have been given equipment with which to play. We have learned fair play, cooperation, and good sportsmanship also. Our coaches have been our teachers and parents. We have made friends among our team mates. Though we have worked industriously and hard, we have had time for play. However, all has not been joy for there have been moments of sorrow and pain. Such trials have but helped us to prepare for the game which lies ahead. We stand fortified, ready to give and to take.

The world in which we make our way is not a happy one. Today it is beset by such turmoil and chaos as never known before. Our very foundations, ideals, and institutions seem to be tottering and crashing about our ears. Greed and hatred are all about us seemingly conquering all. This is not a pleasant, easy going world in which we take our places. Many of us are bewildered and uncertain as to what goals we seek. But we are not afraid. War and hatred can not break our faith nor destroy our ideals. Right can and will triumph.

We, the youth of the world, are the new hope. We shall shape the future. It is for us to restore peace and to rebuild the shattered and shaken world into a better place for all. We must have unlimited courage, and resourcefulness, and above all infinite faith in our ideals and institutions.

"When the one Great Scorer
Comes to write against your name
He writes not whether you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

—JANE SUMMERS.

Reminiscing

Just a few more days with you, dear Angola High, and I shall end my school life. I shall end the pleasant four years I have spent here. This will be our last chance to reminisce so I am collecting each little memory to pack away in my heart.

The first picture finds us in our "Freshman Year." There were sixty-seven of us. We gained Dan Barnes, Frank Barnes, Viola Benson, Billy Benson, Robert L. Ford, Janet Kyle, and Daryl Kling and lost Lucille Kurtz, Betty Lou Welch, Herbert Ewers, William McCormick, Dale Fordyce, Betty Hanselman, Betty Stroh, and Junior Birch. The one thing most outstanding in the memories of the year was the freshman initiation, sponsored by the sophomores.

The next picture shows "The Sophomore Year." We were a little older and perhaps a trifle more sophisticated. In this year we gained Charles Coleman and lost Edith Reid, Anita Suffel, Richard Stage, Homer Rose, Robert L. Ford, Robert Ford, Daniel Dole, Maxine Dove, Mary Chappell, Acile Butz, and Charles Anspaugh. This year we retaliated for past indignities by giving the freshman class a good initiation.

The third picture is the "Junior Class." This year we gained Marion Smith, Joe Elliott, and John Strait and lost Kenneth Bell, Wayne Borne, Joan Hanna, Jane Sellers, Phyllis Sheets, and Carmen Straw. The greatest achievement of the year was the preparation of the junior-senior banquet in honor of the seniors. It was held at Hotel Hendry with "Knighthood" as the theme.

The fourth and final picture is the "Dignified Seniors." This year we gained Beverly Cook and lost Frank Barnes, thus leaving the total number fifty-two, who will end these four wonderful years at Angola High School.

After four years of hard work we find some following the path already started, others choosing a different road; but all leading to a deserved end of greater knowledge. Thus we shall become better fitted to meet and solve greater problems and to do our small part in making this world a better place in which to live.

By CORRINE SAUL and MAXINE RHINESMITH.

A Trip to Heaven

S-s-s! Boom! Tinkle! And we felt ourselves being hurled rapidly through space. We should have known better than to appear in Mr. Handy's civics class without our assignment ready. We tried to catch hold of a cloud as we went by. Then we clutched at the moon, the planet Mercury, and the Milky Way, but without avail. On we sped into Eternity.

Then we stood before the Golden Gate. Saint Peter asked us questions about our sins; but we had no trouble at all in persuading the old gentleman that we were eligible for entrance.

Saint Pete handed us slide trombones explaining that they were all out of harps in heaven (priorities you know), swung open the Golden Gate and there we were in Paradise. The first matter that caught our attention was a number of little cherubs selling newspapers. We listened to their cries and this is what we heard: "Extra! A great event has just happened on earth—Jane Summers, famous woman scientist, has just discovered a new powder to keep students awake in French class."

Wandering about Heaven several hours later, we came upon a lot of angels looking through telescopes and having a grand time laughing at what they saw. We procured a telescope, adjusted it, and there before our vision was the good old earth and the town of Angola and our friends of Angola High School. The sight was a little blurred but we twisted the adjustments and behold, there was the earth again in 1952. Well, well, here was a chance to see what our old friends were up to.

The first thing we gazed upon was a grand new college in Angola. Yes, a school for girls run by Willadean Sierer, Catherine Birchman, Evalyn Umbaugh, and Donna Belle Bowen!

Then our telescope whizzed to New York. It stopped before an athletic building and there was our old friend "Buck" Boyer, prize fighter, now being trained by his manager, Daryl Kling.

Our telescope then focused itself on a building with a strange name on it, the "Wear It, Tear It, and Buy Another One" haberdashery. To our amazement we found that Don Bennett, John Eggleston, Emerson Imus, and John Keckler owned this establishment. Wonderful boys!

Then the telescope went to the top of the Empire State Building and way up there Virginia Scoville and Janet Kyle had their sign "If better pictures are to be drawn, we will draw them." We peered in and they were still drawing pictures of their boy friends. On the same floor was the famous cartoonist, Don Ritter.

Then it tore to the "Met" and found Madame Susie Whitehouse singing Carmen in three keys at the same time.

From the "Met" our telescope went to the New York Health Center and we found Lorraine Erbe as the only woman physician with June Quas, Viola Benson, and Beverly Butz as nurses.

Now our telescope sped to Washington where we found Dan Barnes showing the Secretary of the Navy his plan for a new super aircraft. Also viewing the plans were the retired army officers Don Morse, Frank Sanders, and Lewis Ott and the ex war aces William Doyle, Frank Wiese and Charles Coleman.

Our telescope then flickered to the treasury department where we found Raymond Porter, Secretary of the Treasury, visiting with his old friend John Strait, now president of the Ajax Steel Corporation. Soon the telescope popped in on a meeting of the President's Cabinet and we found their dependable secretaries to be none other than Dolores Nelson, Maxine Rhinesmith, Betty Magley, Betty Wyatt, Beverly Cook, and Ora Aliene Agner.

Then our immortal power carried our vision back to New York to a very fashionable tea room and we found the proprietors to be Violet Wells, Betty Jane Eisenhower and Lila Lee Erwin. On to Fifth Avenue went our telescope to the exclusive Madame Elite dress shop run by our old friends Roslyn Reese, Corrine Saul, Mary Rowe, Betty Sue Zimmerman, and Ruth Shoup. And we found Lita Kiser modeling some of their exclusive creations.

Then our telescope jumped to dear old Angola again where we saw Jean Mabie just arriving from California where she had been crowned Mrs. America.

Last but not least we gazed upon Bill Benson, Joe Elliott, Charles Spangle, and Marion Smith managing the Meadow Brook Farm, one of the most prosperous in the country. With that our telescope faded away to nothing. Apparently it had nothing more to tell us.

And then our alarm clock rang. Alarm clocks in Heaven! Certainly not. We awoke and looked at the clock. Five-thirty in the morning! Oh, yes, we had to get our lesson for Mr. Handy's Civics class.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1942, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make this our last will and testament, giving to the underclassmen and faculty some of our outstanding abilities and useful articles that we had during our four years in high school. We are sure that those who have received material gains in our last will and testament will appreciate them and use them to the best of their advantage.

I, John Keckler, do hereby will and bequeath my senior dignity to John McBride.

I, Max Boyer, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get into trouble to Bill Van Wagner.

I, Dan Barnes, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be late to the final game in a county basketball tourney to Roy Bledsoe.

I, Maxine Mabie, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady with one man to Margaret Erhardt.

I, Beverly Butz, do hereby will and bequeath my athletic abilities to Kathryn Parrish.

I, Marcus Dixon, do hereby will and bequeath my seat on the bench during a basketball game to Bob Dygert.

I, Virginia Crain, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to wait for the boy friend after a basketball game to Arnola Bell.

I, John Eggleston, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get out of school five periods out of seven to Lynn Garn.

I, Dolores Nelson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get my bookkeeping at the last minute to Phyllis Folck.

I, Suzanne Whitehouse, do hereby will and bequeath my desire to play the piano to Londa Rothenbuhler.

I, Betty Sue Zimmerman, do hereby will and bequeath the ability to quarrel with my "steady" to Norma Jean Preston.

I, Daryl Kling, do hereby will and bequeath my basketball technique to Jim Saul.

I, Charles Coleman, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to laugh at Mr. Handy's jokes to Jim Troyer.

I, Emerson Imus, do hereby will and bequeath my worn out excuse blank to Robert Reed.

I, Ruth Shoup, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get engaged on three months' notice to Gloria Aldrich.

I, Lorraine Erbe, do hereby will and bequeath my old worn out physics note book to Carl Sunday.

I, Roslyn Reese, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to swing and hit Marcus Dixon to Delia Fisher.

I, June Quas, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have fun at whatever I do to Barbara Myers.

I, Lewis Ott, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go with Fort Wayne girls in the summer time to Jack Holwerda.

I, Lila Lee Erwin, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get a job at a "five and ten" to Imogene Hubbard.

I, Billy Benson, do hereby will and bequeath a box of aspirin tablets to Mr. Handy.

I, Don Bennett, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to jitterburg to Jack Wells.

I, Mary Jane Summers, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk so long on one subject to David Emerson.

I, Don Ritter, do hereby will and bequeath my map to Garrett and Auburn to Bob Andrews.

I, John Strait, do hereby will and bequeath my position as president of the senior class to "Windy" Zimmer.

I, Violet Wells, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to write to boys in the army to Marcella Goodhew.

I, Frank Sanders, do hereby will and bequeath my skill as an electrician to Curtis Herl.

I, Corrine Saul, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to catch on to a joke five minutes after it is told to Evelyn George.

I, Janet Kyle, do hereby will and bequeath my lung-power at basketball games to my sister, Mamie.

I, Beverly Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my typing skill to Virginia Smith.

I, Marion Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my wit to Walter Richardson.

I, Mary Rowe, do hereby will and bequeath my worn out shorthand note book to Marilyn Payne.

I, Maxine Rhinesmith, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname "Mabel" to any underclassman that wants it.

I, Evalyn Umbaugh, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to date fellows that drive Fords to Mary Heingartner.

I, Charles Spangle, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to kill valuable school time to Max Moor.

I, Willadean Sierer, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to chew gum louder than anyone else to Miss Puckett.

I, Betty Wyatt, do hereby will and bequeath my ability as a good cook to Alice Wallace.

I, Frank Wiese, do hereby will and bequeath my desire to play golf to Max White.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, this twenty-ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

The Angola High School annual has had a very eventful history. It made its first appearance in 1901 in the form of a booklet published by the seniors.

In 1910 each of the nineteen seniors was given a separate page in the annual. The cover was of linen and the book had onion skin pages.

In 1919 a great change was made when the name, The Key, was given to the annual. It was published monthly in newspaper style. The seniors had individual pictures and various classes and organizations were represented. Editorials appeared for the first time.

Each year the annual staff tries to vary the issue and make it just a little better than the preceding one. We do not find two annuals with the same layout—new features are added; others dropped.

Democracy In Action

"We, of the Angola High School student council, do highly resolve to promote the general welfare of our school."

It was the duty of each council member to observe and to carry out to the best of his ability the principles implied in the foregoing statement. The student body placed in the council members, as their representatives, the task of studying and trying to solve the various school problems.

The council had many problems and projects this year. The arranging of chapel programs and setting the dates for school parties were among the important ones. Measures were also taken to improve the lunch room.

Several sales projects were undertaken during the year. Early in the fall the council members sold "Hornet" signs to be fastened on cars. Just before the county tourney they sold small wooden purple and gold megaphone pins. The purpose of these sales was mainly to boost the athletic program. The money derived was used to purchase student council pins for the members.

The officers for the year were: President, Don Bennett; vice president, Virginia Crain; secretary, Shirley Erbe; sergeant-at-arms, Floyd Smurr. The sponsor was Miss Yeager.

The Angola Girl Reserves Club was organized in 1927 under the direction of Miss Kathryn DeWees. Its activities have been carried on since that year with ever increasing interest.

The theme this year was the Girl Reserve Code. It reads:

Gracious in manner
Impartial in judgment
Ready for service
Loyal to friends

Reaching toward the best
Earrest in purpose

Interesting talks were given by several outside speakers, among whom were Rev. Humfreys, Rev. Whitehouse, Mr. Hirsch, Mrs. King, Mr. Shank, and Mrs. Loucks.

Instead of having a Pa-Ma-Me banquet this year a Pa-Ma-Me get-together was held at the school building. A program was given and refreshments were served.

A Christmas party was held at the school building. After a potluck supper, the girls went to the County Farm and sang for the inmates as well as taking them a treat of candy. The girls then returned to the school building for a gift exchange.

The G. R. - Hi-Y hop was held at the Masonic Temple February 17.

Nearly all of the members attended the conference at Garrett, November 8, and several attended the conference at Elkhart, March 28.

The officers this year were: President, Dolores Nelson; vice president, Lorraine Erbe; secretary, June Quas; treasurer, Jane Summers; program chairman, Ora Aliene Agner; finance chairman, Mary Rowe; social chairman, Lita Kiser; service chairman, Betty Sue Zimmerman; song leader, Julia Crain; and pianist, Janet Kyle.

The advisers were: Miss Myers, chief adviser; Miss Reed, finance; Miss Shultz, program; Miss Yeager, social; Mrs. Nelson, service; Mrs. Myers, group chairman; Mrs. Fisher, group secretary.

The Hi-Y Club was first organized in A. H. S. in 1922 and was the first Hi-Y club to be organized in the state. The purpose of the club is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high ideals of Christian character."

Some of the outstanding events of the year were the father and son banquet, the mother and son banquet, and the G. R. and Hi-Y hop. The father and son banquet was held on November 17 at the Christian Church. The speaker was Walter V. Creider, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Auburn. The mother and son banquet was also held at the Christian Church on March 16. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Russ Hershey.

At the weekly meetings, held on Monday evenings, were heard a number of speakers who gave interesting talks. When there wasn't a speaker the members discussed various subjects at the meetings.

The club this year had its own basketball team. The team played two games with the F. F. A. boys and won both times. The team was made up of any members who wanted to play.

At the beginning of every meeting a verse from the Bible was read and then the members of the club stood and repeated the Lord's Prayer.

At the end of every meeting the Whangdoodle was read. Every member of the club had a chance to write and read the Whangdoodle some time during the year.

The officers of the club for this year were: President, Don Bennett; vice president, John McBride; secretary-treasurer, Raymond Porter; sergeant-at-arms, Floyd Smurr. Mr. Certain was the adviser.

National Honor Society

Second row: Lorraine Erbe, Phyllis Care, Virginia Crain, Dolores Nelson.

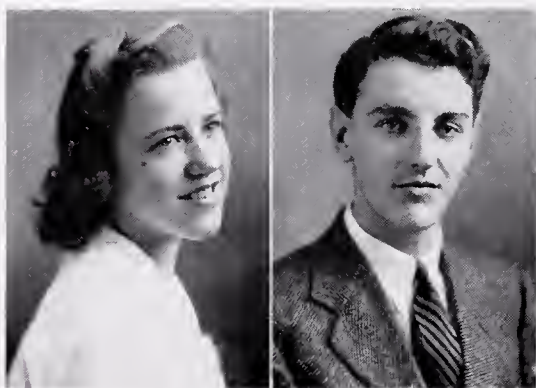

Membership in the National Honor Society indicates the possession of many desirable characteristics including ability for leadership, a spirit of service, a high level of character development, and scholastic ability above two-thirds of the class members.

In 1938 the Angola chapter of the Honor Society adopted a scholarship project. Every year each member of the local organization contributes one dollar to the scholarship fund. This fund is maintained to lend to graduating members of the high school who might need the money for college.

The local chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1935. At present the total membership is 157.

The officers elected by this year's group were: President, Dan Barnes; vice president, Dolores Nelson; secretary, Jane Summers; and treasurer, Mr. Elliott.

Legion Awards

Dolores Nelson

Dan Barnes

The American Legion citizenship award is presented each year by the Angola post No. 31 of the American Legion to one senior boy and one senior girl of Angola High School. These awards have been given for the past ten years.

The criteria for the judging of the winners are honor, courage, leadership, and service to the school.

Our best wishes to Dolores Nelson and Dan Barnes, the winners of the 1942 American Legion awards.

THE HORNET

The Hornet is the mimeographed school paper published by members of the journalism class.

The first edition of our school paper was published in 1918. The first name given this paper was The Key. It was given several different names but in 1935 it was called The Hornet and the name has remained the same since.

The course in journalism is taught to give students experience in interviewing people and in writing articles for publication. In addition to publishing The Hornet, the journalism students write all the articles for the column of Angola School Notes in the Steuben Republican.

The proceeds received from our school paper this year were turned over to the Key annual fund.

Every year the journalism students endeavor to make the Hornet a larger and better paper than it was in previous years.

Kings of Future Agriculture

Standing: Mike Pristas, Keith Castner, Paul Birchman, Max Moor, Cecil Van Wagner, Mr. Elliott.
Seated: Paul Hollinger, Allen Boyer, Bill Benson, George Anspaugh, Robert Osborne, Robert Fanning.

The motto of the Future Farmers of America is:

“Learning to do,
Doing to learn;
Earning to live,
Living to serve.”

The aim and purposes of the F. F. A. are:

- To develop competent, aggressive, rural and agricultural leadership.
- To create and nurture a love of country life.
- To create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupations.
- To participate in cooperative effort.
- To encourage and practice thrift.
- To encourage improvement in scholarship.

The F. F. A. emblem is made up of five symbols, the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn which is surmounted by the American eagle.

The F. F. A. holds its regular meetings the first Tuesday of every month. The meetings consist of an opening ceremony, regular business transactions, entertainment, closing ceremony, and salute to our flag.

Important parts of the Future Farmers' creed are:

- I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds.
- I believe that to live and work on a good farm is pleasant as well as challenging.
- I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and to think clearly.
- I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining.
- I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions in our national life and that I can exact a good influence in my home and community.

Bill Benson was elected District Director of F. F. A. at the state convention held at Purdue University. He was also awarded the Hoosier farmer degree.

The officers for 1942 were: President, George Anspaugh; vice president, Bill Benson; secretary, Harold Green; treasurer, Allen Boyer; reporter, Robert Osborne.

She Can Bake A Cherry Pie

The 4-H Club is open to all girls in this school between the ages of 10 and 20, who are interested in home economics.

The club has business meetings in the winter and then the members continue individual work in the summer. They also enjoy having parties in the summer such as potlucks or swimming parties. Some time in July there are county demonstrations and judging contests. The winners of these are later sent to a district contest. These contestants can go as far as the national. There are also dress revue contests. In August there is a county exhibit of all of the projects completed in 4-H work during the year.

This year cash awards were earned by Ilene Nelson, Mary Lou Crain, Alice Allman, and Paula Jean Albright in the county exhibit. Betty Jean Wyatt was the grand champion in clothing and also the winner of the dress revue. She represented Steuben county at the State Fair Dress Revue.

Miss Martha Allman was the adult leader for the past summer. Miss Janalyce Roulis supervised the work during the winter.

The four H's represent Head, Heart, Hand, and Health. Our pledge is: I pledge my Head to clearer thinking, my Heart to greater loyalty, my Hands to larger service, and my Health to better living for my club, my community and my country. The motto is: "To make the best better." The national colors are green and white.

The Band Plays On

H. Vernon Baker, A. H. S. music director, is a graduate of Bethany College, Kansas, and he received his M. A. degree at Northwestern University. His home is in Garden City, Kansas, and he was formerly employed as music supervisor at Holcomb, Kansas.

He plays clarinet, piano, organ, and the French horn and does vocal work. Both the boys' glee club and the mixed chorus have shown great improvement this year under his guidance.

The Angola High School Band has given some very excellent exhibitions of marching this year. These performances were at the Butler game, November 7, the Garrett game, December 5, the Lions and Rotary benefit, and the Avilla game, February 13.

The band marched with lights on their caps and during the exhibitions the room was blacked out. Some of the formations were a red cross, a V for Victory formation and the letter of the opposing basketball team. The music that was played while marching was the Victory March, Washington Post March, Queen City March, and On Wisconsin.

The band also marched in two different parades at the Auburn street fair last fall.

The organization won second place honors in the band contest at Columbia City, April 18.

The officers of the band were: President, John McBride; vice president, Julia Crain; secretary, Max White; and sergeant-at-arms, Ralph Martin. Mr. Baker was the director.

Clarinets: Virginia Smith, Dick Bratton, Pat Baker, Buddy Hughes, Betty Leman, Jim Troyer, Patty Lou Harman, Molly Lee Hosack, Dick Romero. Oboe: Anna Marie Care. Flute: June Hubbell. Alto clarinet: Phyllis Folck. Bassoon: Warren Bennett. Saxophones: Julia Crain, John McBride, Don Bennett. French horn: John Eggleston. Baritone: Frank Sanders. Cornets: Fred Vesey, Bob Andrews. Baritone: Frank Sanders. Trombones: Ralph Martin, Bob Purdy. Bass: Max White, Roy Bledsoe.

Every Thursday and Friday at 12:10 familiar strains rise from the lower hall. Everyone knows that they are coming from the orchestra room.

This group has been very busy this year.

Some of the members played for the Christmas cantata. Among the selections worked on during the winter were: "Black Rose" by Brockton, "Melodies" by Haydn, "Procession of the Sardar" by Ippolitorn-Iwonow, "Marchte Hongroise" by Berlioz, and "Salut D'Amour" by Elgar.

The orchestra made its last appearance at the commencement program on May 29.

H. Vernon Baker was the director. The membership was forty. The officers were: President, Don Bennett; vice president, Ruth Shoup; secretary, Virginia Smith; and sergeant-at-arms, Roy Bledsoe.

Grade Operetta

"The Galloping Ghost" was the operetta presented by the seventh and eighth grades on March 4. The action was centered around an imaginative old man, Lem, played by Joe Holwerda, who amused a group of children in a gloomy old house by telling ghost stories. A radio enthusiast, played by Carlton Rinehart, brought the ghost to life and caused the disappearance of the host at the party, played by Bob Williamson. Other leading parts were taken by Dick Romero, Lorna Waite, Caroline Bender and Donna Stevens. All ended happily. A chorus and a group of villagers were the vocal groups featured.

The Angola High School Mixed Chorus has had a busy year in 1941-42. They sang at the vesper service at the Congregational Church February 22. The mixed chorus entered the state contest at Butler, April 11, and won first division honors. The group sang two selection at the spring concert sponsored by the Frances Elliott Clark Music Club to observe National Music Week. They made their last appearance at the baccalaureate service, May 24.

The chorus was limited to fifty members; therefore the group was a chosen one. The chorus was under the direction of H. Vernon Baker and Mary M. Puckett was the accompanist.

Music Mothers' Club

The Music Mothers' Club is an organization that helps in the financing of the music groups. This year the club bought the skirts for the majorettes and the hat and coat for the drum major. They also raised money to send the band and mixed chorus to the contests. Officers of the club were: President, Mrs. Harold Martin; vice president, Mrs. Max Bennett; secretary, Mrs. Mark Sanders; treasurer, Mrs. Conway Garn.

Glenna Mae Golden, Gloria Aldrich, Ruth Shoup

String Trio

The string trio, Gloria Aldrich, piano: Ruth Shoup, cello; and Glenna Mae Golden, violin, is well known in Angola and in neighboring towns. The Angola High School was proud to have this fine organization in the school. They were always ready and willing to serve the community. Some of the groups they played for were the Garden Club, Sorosis, a tea at a book review, and the Girl Reserve Pa-Ma-Me get-together. They went on two tours with the Tri-State College Glee Club.

Mr. Baker, George Anspaugh, Warren Bennett, Bob Ziegler, Gayle Grabill, Allen Boyer, LeRoy Wood, Daryl Kling, Wendell Zimmer, Curtis Herl, Floyd Smurr, Lewis Ott, John Keckler, Ronald Rose, Don Bennett, Bob Kling.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club was newly organized this year. This organization has progressed rapidly and has twenty members enrolled. Mr. Baker was the director.

Girls' Glee Club

The Angola Girls' Glee Club this year consisted of fifty-five members. They sang at the vesper service at the Congregational Church on February 22, and at a Parent-Teachers' meeting on March 10. They also sang with the lower grades in a Christmas cantata. Everyone has been pleased with the glee club's accomplishments. Mary Margaret Pucket was the director.

"Growing Pains"

Long will be remembered the trials and tribulations of George and Terry McIntyre as depicted in the senior class play, "Growing Pains," presented in the high school auditorium on March 31 and April 1. The parts of George and Terry were played by John Keckler and Phyllis Care and a splendid job they did, too. Jane Summers and Marcus Dixon shared honors in the parts of Mrs. McIntyre and Professor McIntyre. The comedienues were Lorraine Erbe and June Quas, who played in the roles of Elsie Patterson and Mrs. Patterson respectively. Many were the laughs they received.

Other characters, all excellently presented were Sophie, Maxine Rhinesmith; traffic officer, Don Ritter; Dutch, Raymond Porter; Brian, Dan Barnes; Omar, William Paul Doyle; Hal, Joe Elliott; Pete, John Strait; Prudence, Lita Kiser; Patty, Virginia Scoville; Jane, Suzanne Whitehouse; Miriam, Dolores Nelson; Vivian, Maxine Mabie. COACH BILL JOHNSON

"Bill" has been a friend as well as a coach and the seniors on the team will miss him greatly next year.

He has proved his ability by making a winning ball club in the two years he has been in Angola. Many games this year were won as a result of his foresight and ability to "dope" the opponents' type of play.

This is the first year Bill has coached a tournament champion team, but he has had two sectional finalists.

COACH JOHNSON

The Line-Up

DARYL KLING

Daryl is one of the five senior boys who will be lost to the team next year. Kling was one of our leading scorers who thrilled the fans with his favorite one hand shot from the left side of the floor. Daryl played the guard position most of the year. Senior.

MAX BOYER

"Buck" didn't break into the starting line up until the LaGrange game. He was very valuable both defensively and offensively and will be hard to replace. His favorite shot was a one hand push shot. "Buck" played guard and forward. Senior.

JOHN McBRIDE

Much will be expected from "Mac" next year since he did such a fine job this year in both offensive and defensive playing. Johnny was another one of our leading scorers and will be remembered as the boy who sank the winning basket against Butler in the season opener. "Mac" played forward. Junior.

WENDELL ZIMMER

"Windy" was the other regular forward and was the winner of this year's free throw award. He was chosen as all-county forward during the County Tournament. His favorite shot was from a "fast break." Junior.

DAN BARNES

"Danny" played the center position for the Hornets this year. His height was a valuable factor in many games. Barnes was named all-county center during the County Tourney and was captain of the varsity squad. His services will be missed next season. Senior.

JIM KECKLER

"Keck's" first season on the varsity squad proved him to be of much value to the team. Jim played a guard position and was accurate on his long shots. Much can be expected of Jim in years to come. Sophomore.

FRANK WIESE

Frank played part of the season on the reserve team and was a valuable substitute for the varsity squad. He was handicapped somewhat by his lack of experience but made up for this in spirit and hard work. Senior.

MARCUS DIXON

"Curly" was another of the team members who lacked experience since he didn't start basketball until his junior year. He played on the reserve team part of the year and was a substitute on the first team. Senior.

WARREN BROWN

"Zeke" played the guard position in many games. His speed and defensive ability made him a very valuable substitute. Since Brown is only a junior, much will be expected of him next year. Junior.

ROY BLEDSOE

"Moose" played pivot on the second team most of the year but "suited up" with the tourney squad. During the sectional he played the center position. Roy should be a valuable player next year because he has the ability and size to be a good player. Junior.

JIM SAUL

Jimmy was one of our most valuable reserves and should see much action next year. He always showed a lot of speed and pep when in the game. He played the guard position. Junior.

DAVID EMERSON

Dave has been the faithful student manager. He looked after the extra balls and the towels and did numerous odd jobs. The team couldn't get along without him. Junior.

Season's Play

The 1941-42 basketball season may be considered as highly successful, for Angola not only won over fifty per cent of their scheduled games but defeated many of the tougher teams on the schedule. Some of these teams have not been defeated by the Angola five for several years. Angola's win over Garrett in their second tilt was the first defeat suffered by Garrett at our hands for six years. South Bend and LaGrange were two more teams who have not been defeated before by Angola for several years.

Angola's victory over Avilla, a team that had beaten many of the tougher teams, including a two-point victory over our sectional winner, Butler, threw the Corner Conference into a four-way tie, the winners being Angola, Butler, Wolcottville and Avilla. This is the first Corner Conference victory for Angola in many years.

Hornets Take County Tourney

The Angola Hornets won the Steuben County Basketball Tournament at Angola this year by defeating Fremont in the final game to the tune of 30 to 23. Angola won from Pleasant Lake 29 to 27 in a very close initial game and trounced Metz 43 to 24 in the second round.

Angola was well represented in the All-County team with Zimmer at forward and Barnes at center. Angola also had two of the higher scorers among these players.

Standing: David Emerson, student manager, Bob Dygert, John McBride, Max Boyer, Dan Barnes, Daryl Kling, Wendell Zimmer, Floyd Smurr.
Seated: Billy Van Wagner, Billy Dotson, Jack Holwerda, Warren Brown, Jim Keckler, Dean Dygert, Allen Boyer.

Angola started out the baseball season well, winning their first four games, but Fremont snapped the winning streak. The first four to fall under the Angola sting were Metz, Scott, Orland, and Flint. The Hornets were defeated by Pleasant Lake in a hard fought game. Then with an understandable vengeance Angola's pitcher, Kling, blanked Salem, 5-0 in a no hit game, receiving great support from his teammates. Angola then had a strong chance at the county tourney, going into the county tourney competition after Metz defeated Salem. At the end of the season the Hornets were defeated by Hamilton.

Angola's players were a fighting aggregation, with no particular stars, but all pulling together. Brown, Kling, B. Dygert, Zimmer and McBride were the leading hitters. Kling was pitcher but B. Dygert pitched the Flint game. Brown did a commendable job catching; McBride played first with a will; Boyer played a classic second-base; and Barnes did a fine job at short with Zimmer doing a bang-up job at third. In the outfield were B. Dygert, Smurr, Keckler, and B. VanWagner. D. Dygert was utility man and did a good job. C. Coleman, A. Boyer, J. Holwerda, B. Dotson played reserve roles, sometimes getting into games and always fighting and on their toes.

The season was marked by some sensational hits. The Hornets often doubled the opposition when they were on base, the usual combination being Van Wagner, or Barnes to Boyer to McBride. David Emerson also played a helpful part in the season as student manager.

Girls' Athletic Club

The Girls' Athletic Club was organized during the second week of school with Miss Yeager as supervisor. Virginia Scoville was elected president and Betty Magley, secretary.

Meetings were held every Friday night after school, and the girls usually played basketball, which was the favorite game. Other activities enjoyed during the year were volley ball, table tennis, shuffle board, deck tennis, tumbling, badminton, and tennis.

Two parties were held in the evening and the girls danced, played basketball, and other games, and refreshments were served. One of the big events of the year was the basketball game in which the freshman and senior G. A. C. girls played the sophomore and junior G. R. girls. The G. A. C.'s won the game, probably because they had the loudest rooters, and players and spectators all had a good time.

Variety In Games

Junior-Senior Banquet

Memories of the Junior-Senior banquet always linger long after the event. This year the banquet was held at the Kendallville country club on Thursday evening, May 28.

The theme was "The Navy" and decorations and favors beautifully carried this out. The address of welcome to the banquet was given by Wendell Zimmer, president of the junior class, and the response by John Strait, president of the senior class. Other talks were given by David Emerson, June Hubbell and Miss Shultz. Dinner music was furnished by popular records.

A floor show was a new feature of the entertainment. This show included Norm and Dean and "The Three Shades", both vocal groups and a dance team, all entertainers being from radio station WOWO. Music for dancing was provided by the country club orchestra.

G. R., Hi-Y Hop

The Masonic Temple was the scene of the annual Hi-Y and Girl Reserve hop, held on Tuesday evening, February 17. The decorations consisted of red, white and blue crepe paper streamers. The music was provided by records played over a loud speaker system.

A floor show with Don Bennett as master of ceremonies provided extra entertainment. After a grand march, refreshments of pop and cookies were served.

The Girl Reserve and Hi-Y Clubs were entertained by the LaGrange G. R. and Hi-Y groups on December 8. Entertainment consisted of dancing and a movie comedy. Refreshments of pop, sandwiches and cookies were served.

School Parties

An all high school skating party was held at the Circle Park skating rink at Hamilton Lake on October 21. Both spills and thrills were experienced. Refreshments of soft drinks were served. The party was arranged by the student council.

The seniors sponsored a defense party early in January. Defense posters decorated the walls and pillars in the recreation room. Matching pieces of pictures cut from magazines served as the means of finding partners for the refreshments. Music for the dancing was provided by the loud speaker system. The floor show provided excellent entertainment. Defense stamps were given as the prize for a contest.

A school party was put on by the juniors in March. The recreation room was decorated with black and crimson streamers to carry out the junior class colors. Dancing and games provided the entertainment with a community sing as the high light. All will remember "Deep in the Heart of Texas." Refreshments were served.

The sophomores gave a school party on April 10. Dancing and games provided the entertainment along with a variety program. Decorations were in the class colors, black and white. Refreshments of cake and ice cream cups were served.

The freshmen sponsored a school picnic at Hamilton Lake at the close of the year.

On The Funny Side

J. Wells: That girl brings out the beast in me.

McBride: Yeah, she's got your goat and will probably make a monkey out of you.

Mr. Kling: Daryl, how is that little Heingartner girl treating you?

Daryl: Okay—she keeps me in the dark most of the time.

D. Barnes: Pardon, sir, when does the next train leave for the east?

Station Agent: Not for six hours.

D. Barnes: When does the westbound go through?

Station Agent: Not until tomorrow.

D. Barnes: Come on, Emmy. Now we can cross the tracks.

Mailman's Wife: Why, paw, you look all tuckered out.

Mailman: Shore am, maw. I've been lookin' all over town for a feller named "Fragile."

Evie G.: Neckin', I think, is the pastime of fools.

Boy Friend: I suppose you're the intellectual type.

Evie: No, I'm the biggest fool you ever saw.

Mr. Erhardt: Say, it's two o'clock. Do you think you can stay all night?

Zeke Brown: I'd have to telephone home first.

The squad of new recruits had been out on the rifle range for their first try at marksmanship. They knelt at 250 yards and fired. Not a hit! They knelt at 100 yards. Not a hit! They moved up to 100 feet. Not a hit!

"Tenshun," the sergeant drawled. "Fix bayonets! Charge! It's your only chance."

Buck: What's all the hurry?

Frosh Fisher: I just bought a text book and I'm tryin' to get to class before the next edition comes out.

Windy: Something seems to be wrong with the engine. It won't—

Norma: Don't be foolish. Wait until we get off the main highway.

John K.: Isn't this dance floor unusually bumpy?

Ruth Ann: No, I didn't have these corns when we started.

Miss Yeager: Lester, to what family does the whale belong?

L. Fenner: I don't know. Nobody in our family has one.

Playing the Game

The Game Is Ending

*We've said farewell in cap and gown
The game is ending,
With all of fortune or renown
As yet impending.
In memory and kind interest
We'll cling together;
However strayed, wherever sent,
